Greetings!

Last year, we were renting a house in Newport that was furnished with someone else's stuff. It was nice stuff, but that it was nice just made me hyper-aware of not damaging anything. We lavish our dog with misplaced parental affection, but in that house we were extremely aware of not letting her up on places she might damage. The pretty patterns on the furniture were concealed with multiple blankets meant to minimize any risk of wear and tear. When Christmas came around, we realized our Christmas things were in the very back of our storage unit. Being a two-clergy household, there was no time to take a day and pull everything out to get our Christmas stuff and put everything else back in the unit. The storage unit was stacked together like a game of Tetris, and neither my husband nor I had the energy to play that game again.

When I was growing up, we were pretty broke, and I had lived the wisdom that Christmas is not about the stuff. But when Christmas came around last year and the house was not decorated- not a single thing of our own or any of the trinkets we had collected over the years- I fell into a serious slump. I missed our stuff. The house felt sterile and cold. My husband mentioned this in conversation with his senior warden, and she materialized with boxes of things for us to use- boxes of her stuff that she wanted to share with us. My favorite thing was a wreath she and her son handmade for us- a blue ribbon wrapped wreath hot glued with pretty sparkly little balls and silvery reindeer coming from either side. It finally felt like the holidays when we hung that wreath.

This year, we are in our own home. We had looked at artificial trees but didn't like anything we saw. As the season sped up, we resigned ourselves to not having a tree again this year. But I did pull out our decorations- gifts from my mother-in-law, some hand-knitted things my friend in Arizona made us, some trinkets from my trip to the Holy Land. As I pulled out those decorations, I saw our ornaments, and it made me sad that we weren't going to have a tree.

Monday, as I was driving home from a funeral at Veterans Memorial Cemetery, I passed a small shop with potted trees and greenery out front. I was in our Honda sedan, but the trees looked small enough to fit in the car. Though I had driven right past the shop I turned the car around, found a tree out front that I liked, and went in to purchase it – still wearing my cassock. There was one guy in the shop, and he seemed amused to see me, but he sold me the tree and helped me stuff it into the back of the car. (My sense of size and space was off by just enough that the Honda will never be the same.) I arrived home feeling victorious and happy.

Tim went to the Home Depot and purchased some lights. We poured eggnog and played Christmas music and pulled out ornaments. Because the tree is quite small, we had to be judicious and select only the most meaningful things to hang. It is now covered with felt ornaments that Tim's grandma made when he was young. We have a felt hen nesting in the tree and a felt Santa with his accompanying reindeer. We have the ornament from my very first Christmas and Lucy from the Peanuts crew, purchased by my grandma in North Carolina and still marked with the $2 tag from the gift shop on Emerald Isle. We have the first ornament I ever selected, purchased for me when I was in middle school by a dear family friend who has since passed. We found the nativity sets Tim was gifted when the spiritual director who had seen him through his discernment process before seminary died a few years ago.

We are now surrounded by love everywhere we look, reminded of people who have shaped our lives, reminded that Jesus is Love Incarnate, and that we have experienced God's deep, abiding love in our lives. This Christmas I hope you are reminded of the love that has seen you through to this point too. I hope that the stuff that makes up your Christmas fills your heart and brings glad tidings of great joy.

Blessings to you, today and always,
Mtr Tanya

Adult Faith Formation

Adult Faith Formation

The AFF class is reading Barbara Brown Taylor's Learning to Walk in the Darkness. In this book Taylor writes, "Darkness is shorthand for anything that scares me-- either because I am sure that I do not have the resources to survive it or because I do not want to find out. (But) I have learned things in the dark that I could never have learned in the light, things that have saved my life over and over again, so that there is really only one conclusion. I need the darkness as much as I need light."

About the author, Time magazine writes, "Few souls are as synched to the world's mysteries as Barbara Brown Taylor's... Taylor writes spiritual nonfiction that rivals the poetic power of C.S. Lewis and Frederick Buechner."

Please join the AFF class as she guides us through a spirituality of the nighttime and teaches us how to find God even in darkness.

There is no class on December 29. We will resume on Wednesday, January 5, with Chapter 6 "Entering The Stone".

Advent and Godly Play

Advent, (from Latin adventus, "coming"), in the Christian church calendar, the period of preparation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ at Christmas.

No doubt your children are in fact already 'preparing' for Christmas in their own sweet way.

'Christmas' is usually their answer to the question, "What is your favorite holiday?" While it is often difficult to keep in mind during holiday celebrations, lights, shopping; the season of Advent is a very holy time.

The next few weeks in Godly Play we will be focusing on Advent. The children will each receive a very special package that was handmade especially for them. It is their first Christmas gift this year. Ask them about it..invite them to teach you about Advent. We really look forward to seeing you children each Sunday, these next Sundays will be especially meaningful. we hope to see them!

"God of hope, I look to you with an open heart and yearning spirit. During this Advent season, I will keep alert and awake, listening for your word and keeping to your precepts. My hope is in you." ~ Matthew Kelly

Fun Facts...

The Advent wreath first appeared in Germany in 1839. A Lutheran minister working at a mission for children created a wreath out of the wheel of a cart. He placed twenty small red candles and four large white candles inside the ring. The red candles were lit on weekdays and the four white candles were lit on Sundays.

Eventually, the Advent wreath was created out of evergreens, symbolizing everlasting life in the midst of winter and death. The circle reminds us of God's unending love and the eternal life He makes possible. Advent candles are often nestled in the evergreen wreath.

The four weeks Advent is broken down into four themes. These themes are represented by the four candles on the Advent wreath.

1. Hope or promise
2. Preparation or faith
3. Joy
4. Love or adoration

An Advent Prayer

Prayer is a wonderful way to help cut away from distractions of the season and open your heart to prepare for the joy and hope of Christ's birth. Here is a sample prayer to use during the season to focus your heart and mind for the birth of Jesus Christ.

This Advent, Lord, come to the manger of my heart.
Fill me with Your presence from the very start.
As I prepare for the holidays and gifts to be given,
Remind me of the gift You gave when You sent Your Son from Heaven.
The first Christmas gift, it was the greatest gift ever.
You came as a baby born in a manger.
Wrapped like the gifts I find under my tree,
Waiting to be opened, to reveal Your love to me.
Restore to me the wonder that came with Jesus' birth,
When He left the riches of Heaven and wrapped Himself in rags of earth.
Immanuel, God with us, Your presence came that night.
And angels announced, "Into your darkness, God brings His Light."
"Do not be afraid," they said, to shepherds in the field.
Speak to my heart today, Lord, and help me to yield.
Make me like those shepherd boys, obedient to Your call.
Setting distractions and worries aside, to You I surrender them all.
Surround me with Your presence, Lord, I long to hear Your voice.
Clear my mind of countless concerns and all the holiday noise.
Slow me down this Christmas, let me not be in a rush.
In the midst of parties and planning, I want to feel Your hush .
This Christmas, Jesus, come to the manger of my heart.
Invade my soul like Bethlehem, bringing peace to every part.
Dwell within and around me, as I unwrap Your presence each day.
Keep me close to You, Lord. It's in Your wonderful Name I pray.
~Renee Swope, "The Manger of My Heart"

I send you blessings for this Thanksgiving and always,
Theresa Muscat

Coffee Hour

Coffee Hour Volunteers

People don't come to coffee hour just for a cup of joe; they want a human connection, something we all have missed during the pandemic! Here's a place where we build community one cup at a time.

We need your help! Father Tim would like to resume Coffee Hour. For now, we are only offering coffee and juice- no food.

As usual, our sexton, Tim, will set up the coffee urn in the morning. The Coffee Hour host simply needs to set up the coffee "station" with cups, sugars, creamer and napkins. These supplies (except the creamer) are all kept in the armoire in the Blackburn Room. There will be a table set up in the narthex near the stairs where you can set up a juice "station" with small juice cups and napkins. Tablecloths can be found in the armoire also.

So, the host would bring half and half as well as some type of juice. Everything else is provided. After the 10:15am service's coffee hour, the urns would need to be cleaned out and stored in the Blackburn Room and you would need to ensure that coffee grounds go in the trash.

Please consider signing up for an upcoming Sunday so we can properly extend our hospitality and reconnect. Christina put the sign-up sheet on the wall across from the office. You can sign up at church or call Christina in the office at 401-884-4116 and she'll add you to the list.

We look forward to seeing you all soon,

St. Luke's Choirs

St. Luke's Choirs Sing for You!

As a special gift from the Canterbury, St. Cecilia, and Angel Choirs to our St. Luke's family and friends, choir members compiled a special 'arrangement' of "How Can I Keep From Singing". The music is from an American folk song originally composed by Baptist minister Robert Wadworth Lowry in 1868 with the four-part arrangement published by Jeffrey Honoré in 1991. The choirs performed this piece at their 2019 Spring Concert and happily recreated that performance in this video (also available on St. Luke's website and Facebook page).

Big Brothers and Big Sisters

Big Brothers and Big Sisters Donations

In our continuing efforts to be a good neighbor and serve our local community, we have added a new addition to the St Luke's parking lot! The clothing bin is a result of joining in a new partnership between the Episcopal Diocese and Big Brother Big Sister of Rhode Island. It will serve as a collection point for community donations of clothing, shoes and other cloth items. Please drop off your bagged items at your convenience.
