Dear Brothers and Sisters,

My dad is a retired Marine, and when I was a little kid we were stationed at Camp Lejeune in North Carolina, at that time the largest Marine Corps base in the country. We were about three hours away from Fort Bragg, which continues to be the largest Army base in the country. To say there was an intense rivalry between the two would be an understatement; they were constantly competing against each other. I was three years old, so I did not understand the finer points of their contests; but I was aware of regular races, training exercises, and I even think someone stole a trophy from someone else, sparking an escalating series of retaliations. Perhaps it is no wonder that I thought the Marines and Army soldiers were at war against each other; it never dawned on me that we could possibly be on the same team!

So often, it feels like that pattern replicates itself in our world- we focus on our differences so much that we imagine we're on entirely different teams, we forget that not only are we all equally created in the image of our loving God, but that we need one another. This is not unique to our times- it's why Paul wrote to the Corinthians to remind them that they're equally part of the Body of Christ, and that each part of the body is important and necessary. The Corinthians were focusing on the distinctions- the teams- they had known before- Gentile and Jew, servant and free, woman and man. Paul tells us that these are no longer distinctions that matter. We have to let go of the teams we imagined we were on in order to be part of the one body- the one team- to which we are all called.

That might feel really difficult- maybe even impossible- but Paul gives us the way forward. He tells us that we are all part of one body, and he then tells us that as Christians, we are to turn our hearts to faith, hope, and love. When our hearts are set on these, we know one another as sisters and brothers, created by God who loves us. The faith, hope, and love to which Paul calls us are not thin desires, not silly things in a world that is complicated and often difficult to navigate. We are told to set our hearts on faith because we know God lived among us and loves us. We are told to set our hearts on hope because we know that Jesus has conquered death. We are told to set our hearts on agape, love without condition, love that demands that we seek the best for each other, because this is the love God has for each of us. Faith hope and love, these three, and the greatest of these is love.

I love team St. Luke's, I love team Episcopal Church, but most of all I love team Holy Spirit, where we are all gathered together as beloved members of the Body of Christ. Let's set our hearts together on faith, hope, and love, and let's invite others to join the team where everyone belongs. We need one another, and we're all in this together.

Faithfully,
Mtr Tanya

Lenten Book Study

Lenten Book Study

"Jesus came preaching, but the church wound up preaching Jesus. Why does the church insist on making Jesus the object of its attention rather than heeding his message? (The late) Harvard minister, Peter J. Gomes, believes that excessive focus on the Bible and doctrines about Jesus have led the Christian church astray. To recover the transformative power of the gospel Gomes says we must go beyond the Bible and rediscover how to live out Jesus' original revolutionary message of hope. "

(Gomes writes,) "... Hope is not merely the optimistic view that somehow everything will turn out all right in the end if everyone just does as we do. Hope is the more rugged, the more muscular view that even if things don't turn out all right and aren't all right, we endure through and beyond the times that disappoint or threaten to destroy us."

This Lent, I hope you'll join me and others in reading Peter Gomes' The Scandalous Gospel, beginning Wednesday, March 9, at 7:00PM. All classes will run by way of Zoom, Wednesday evenings from 7:00-8:30.

I look forward to sharing this part of my Lenten journey with you all.

Lenten blessings- Tim

St. Luke's Lenten Blog

St. Luke's Lenten Blog

The season of Lent has traditionally been one of reflection and repentance. Repentance, metanoia in Greek, literally means a physical turning around; as Christians repentance is the call to turn back to our God who loves us. As we experienced together last year, our St. Luke's Lenten Blog is a wonderful resource for prayer and reflection. Posts are written by members of our St. Luke's community and based on the lectionary Scripture assigned for the day. Writers reflect on a theme, phrase, or even word that has struck them in a particular way. Our blog begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2nd, and will go through Easter Day. Posts will be available on our website and on our Facebook page.

We are in need of writers! You don't need to be an expert or even have experience writing about Scripture; just an open heart and willingness to share. If you would like to write a short (1-3 paragraph) reflection for our blog, please email Mtr Tanya at tanya@stlukeseg.org, and she will send you a set of daily readings and more detailed instructions.

Youth Faith Formation

Snow Tubing At Yawgoo Has Been Rescheduled

The Youth of St. Luke's are invited to go Snow Tubing at Yawgoo! Snow tubing is apparently a very popular activity during this season of Covid when we all want to be outside, so we've needed to exercise some flexibility in our date. Please contact Mtr Tanya at tanya@stlukeseg.org if you would like to join us. We will keep a list of people who are interested in going and send out a group email as soon as we're able to confirm a date and time.

Stacey Nakasian, Youth Group Leader extraordinaire, is looking forward to a fun-filled time together! All youth are invited; for children younger than middle-school aged, parents are required to join the group for the entire duration of the afternoon.

The cost is $30 per person. Please do not let cost keep you from joining the fun! If you need financial assistance, please let Mtr Tanya know.

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves and Fishes

Covid continues to challenge us to find ways to provide service to those in need. We are currently looking for new ways to achieve our mission of preparing and delivering food and clothing to those in need.

For now we will continue to bring bag lunches to the West Warwick site and our neighbors at the East Greenwich Hotel.

For our run on February 26, 2022, we will be asking for bag lunches to be prepared at your home and delivered to St Luke's by 12:00 PM on that date. The SignUp Genius details the needs for each bag.

Click Here to sign up for our February run!

Our efforts at the Women's Shelter in Woonsocket have been well received and most helpful to their residents. The good news is that they continue to receive assistance from many sources and currently do not have any requests for us for the month of February. We will continue to be in touch with them for their future needs.

Your generosity is most appreciated and allows us to continue forward. Thank you!

Grief Support Group

Grief is hard work!

It is even more difficult when we feel like we need to figure it out all on our own!

But ...

We Need Not Walk Alone!

St. Luke's has just started a Grief Support Group for Widows and Widowers.
If your spouse has died within the last few years, this group is for you!

Please join us in the Auditorium on the 3rd Saturday each month at 10 am and let's navigate through this challenging journey of grief together!

I work as a Bereavement Specialist for Southcoast VNA and a large portion of what I do is to facilitate Grief Support Groups.

I am so very grateful for the opportunity to facilitate a group with my St. Luke's family.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions!

Nancy Arnold - nancearnold@yahoo.com
(Our next meeting of the group will be Saturday, February 19, 2022 - 10 am!)

We are compiling a list of parishioners' birthdays, anniversaries, and other important dates. If you would like to have a thanksgiving offered during the weekly Prayers of the People, please complete this form. An appropriate thanksgiving will be included during the prayers.

Any questions? Please email Christina (cimondi@stlukeseg.org) or call the parish office (401-884-4116). Happy Celebrating!

St. Luke's Choirs

St. Luke's Choirs Sing for You!

As a special gift from the Canterbury, St. Cecilia, and Angel Choirs to our St. Luke's family and friends, choir members compiled a special 'arrangement' of "How Can I Keep From Singing". The music is from an American folk song originally composed by Baptist minister Robert Wadworth Lowry in 1868 with the four-part arrangement published by Jeffrey Honoré in 1991. The choirs performed this piece at their 2019 Spring Concert and happily recreated that performance in this video (also available on St. Luke's website and Facebook page).

Big Brothers and Big Sisters

Big Brothers and Big Sisters Donations

In our continuing efforts to be a good neighbor and serve our local community, we have added a new addition to the St Luke's parking lot! The clothing bin is a result of joining in a new partnership between the Episcopal Diocese and Big Brother Big Sister of Rhode Island. It will serve as a collection point for community donations of clothing, shoes and other cloth items. Please drop off your bagged items at your convenience.
