Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Diane and I traveled to Mystic, CT, recently for our traditional “last date” before the calendars fill with Christmas-related concerts, events, and preparations. While there, we visited this wonderful independent bookstore situated in the heart of Mystic Village. We have a niece as well as two other dear friends with newborns, so we headed to the children’s section, in search of books once read to our children years ago.

As you might expect, we discovered a large, prominently placed selection of books related to the holiday season. Of course, books about Santa abounded. But also on display were a number of lovely books about Hanukkah and Kwanza. I was quite impressed by the cultural literacy of this independent store.

Then, after considerable searching, I realized something. Nowhere to be found was a single children’s book featuring the nativity story or even referencing Jesus. Not a single book.

Now, to be clear, I believe it important we Christians are respectful of the reality that many in this country hold other beliefs and sentiments. I do not subscribe to the dangerously intensifying notion that we live in a Christian nation. (Although I do wish our nation’s practices more often aligned with gospel concerns.)

But in the same way that those celebrating Hanukkah and Kwanza tell their stories and keep their traditions alive, I do believe we practicing Christians need to tell our story. And I am not talking about Santa!

Often I hear people speaking about “attacks on Christianity which threaten our faith.” I suppose in some instances that is true. But frankly, I think one of the greatest threats to our faith-tradition emerges from our own growing reluctance, if not down-right inability, to tell the sacred stories and then live into all that they mean. To a certain degree, I wonder if, by our silence, we haven’t colluded in taking Christ out of Christmas.

I’ll spare you the rantings of a cranky old priest. But I will say, I left Mystic that night more passionate than ever about making sure we don’t lose sight of the vulnerable newborn, laying in a manger, surrounded by two loving nomadic parents. And I want to invite you to consider with me this question: How can we/will we, in the coming weeks, keep Christ as a part of our Christmas celebrations?

I look forward to discovering answers with all of you.

Advent blessings,
Tim

The Giving Tree

St. Luke's Giving Tree

The Giving Tree committee is very appreciative of our St. Luke's family. This year we had 33 families looking for help with gifts and cards to shop with. You gave so very generously with Stop & Shop, Walmart and Target cards. We had grandmothers who are taking care of grandchildren and two families with handicapped children (one is wheelchair bound). Many of these families are working parents that just do not have any extra cash for the holidays. The St. Luke's family was so very supportive of the Giving Tree committee that we all had smiles on our faces while putting the gifts together!

Once again thank you so much and Merry Christmas to all!

Adult Faith Formation Book Study

Adult Faith Formation Book Study

OUR ADVENT BOOK STUDY TO BEGIN A BIT EARLY!

SCARRED BY STRUGGLE, TRANSFORMED BY HOPE

Everyone goes through times of pain and sorrow, depression and darkness, stress and suffering. It is in the necessary struggles of life, however, that we stretch our souls and gain new insights enabling us to go on. Building on the biblical story of Jacob wrestling with God and on the story of her own battle with life-changing disappointment, Sister Joan Chittister deftly explores the landscape of suffering and hope, considering along the way such wide-ranging topics as consumerism, technology, grief, and the events of September 11, 2001.

We struggle, she says, against change, isolation, darkness, fear, powerlessness, vulnerability, exhaustion, and scarring; and while these struggles sometimes seem insurmountable, we can emerge from them with the gifts of conversion, detachment, faith, courage, surrender, limitations, endurance, transformation, and (perhaps most important) hope. Each of these struggles and gifts is discussed in a chapter of its own. Meant to help readers cope with their own suffering and disappointment, Scarred by Struggle, Transformed by Hope is, in Sister Joan's words, an anatomy of struggle and an account of the way hope grows in us, despite our moments of darkness, regardless of our regular bouts of depression. It is an invitation to look again at the struggles of life in order that we might remember how to recognize new life in our souls the next time our hearts turn again to clay.

Neither a self-help manual nor a book offering pat answers, but supremely practical and relevant, this book will richly reward those readers seeking solace in the empathic, wise, and accessible meditations of a fellow struggler.

Please join the Adult Faith Formation class Wednesdays at 7:00PM. Classes will be held by way of Zoom.

Our reading assignment is Chapters 22-24

Epiphany Book Study to begin January 4

"When Faith Becomes Sight:
Opening Your Eyes to God's Presence All Around," by Beth & David Boorman.

From p.3 of the Introduction the Boorman's write:

"In short, rather than trying to fit God and life into a system of beliefs, this book suggests that we can find God by paying attention to our own lived experience, that we can, as St. Ignatius said, 'find God in all things.' Not that God CAUSES all things but we can discover God present and available to us in the midst of it all. To do so, what we need most are the eyes to see God."

Please join the Adult Faith Formation class in reading this book perfectly suited for Epiphany.

Notes: I want to take a moment and offer a sincere thank you to each and every one of you. Your continued loyalty and support of St Luke's seems to never waver. Our finances during the past 3 years of the pandemic have remained relatively strong, and between the kitchen campaign and fund-raising events, we have been able to invest roughly $800,000 to enhance and maintain this beautiful facility. You are all amazing – and I can't thank you enough.

- Income – Pledge and Loose Plate income are over budget by $30,000
- Expenses – Overall expenses are actually slightly under budget, when you take out the capital expenses and fundraising investments we've made.
- Bottom line – we are $40,586 ahead of budget. Budgeted loss at years end was $73,999, so if we can continue the loss will be less ($33,413)
- Ideal Staffing – If St. Luke's were staffed at the level we discussed at the town hall meeting in April, it would have meant an additional $89,038. (January – November) in expenses.

Peace and Grace,
Mike

Job Opening - Part-time Coordinator for Youth and Family Programs

While it is Fr. Tim's policy not to hire parishioners, if you have any friends who may be interested, please let us know.

St. Luke's Church, an inclusive, thriving, multi-generational, and joy-filled church, located in the heart of East Greenwich, is looking for a part-time program coordinator (15-18 hours per week) to expand our ministries with youth and their families.

Essential hopes and expectations include oversight of our youth faith formation offerings (curriculum selection and preparation, teacher recruitment and support), enhanced activities of a fledgling youth group, weekly communication with parents regarding how they might further their children's faith formation at home, and the development of a one-week summer Vacation Bible School.

Additional responsibilities include regular collaboration with the ministry team, the creation of seasonal offerings, assisting the rector with confirmation classes (February through May), and planning for our every-other-year mission trip to the Dominican Republic.

Appropriate candidates must have a love for youth, and a comfort and familiarity with the Christian tradition. Experience working in a youth-related setting a must; a background in education is helpful but not required.

Other important qualities and attributes include:

- Creativity
- Good sense of humor
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Flexibility
- A demonstrated capacity to work well with others
- An energetic and energizing disposition

The weekly hours are flexible, although presence most Sunday mornings is required. With the exception of a Vacation Bible School, Faith Formation classes pause from June through August, allowing for 6 weeks of vacation time.

Women of Grace

In December WofG focused on nourishing the soul. Our next meeting, Monday, January 2, 2023, we will focus on nourishing the body. How often has that new year's resolution been about taking better care of oneself? I am going to lose weight, I am going to exercise more, I am going to eat better. If you're like me, it happens often. At our January meeting, we will have a presentation by Chris Tarro of Stretch Lab in East Greenwich on the benefits of stretching. Are you looking to increase your range of motion and flexibility? Perhaps reduce muscle and joint pain? Would you like to reduce stress? Stretching tight muscles allows blood and oxygen to flow better helping improve mental clarity and reduce stress. Chris will talk about wellness and how stretching plays an important role keeping the body in balance. Not only might you have the opportunity to experience first hand a stretch or two, he and his colleagues will also demonstrate stretching techniques you can practice at home.

All women are invited so please mark your calendar for Monday, January 2nd. If you are planning to attend, kindly let me know at deblukens73@gmail.com or text, (908) 500-4573 so we can plan accordingly. May God bless...

Lunch on the Hill

Welcome Back – "Lunch On The Hill"

*I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a stranger and you welcomed me.....*

Prior to shut down due to Covid, Saint Luke's "Lunch on the Hill" offered lunches every Wednesday to our surrounding community with a focus on the clients of the Food Pantry. "Lunch On The Hill" has resumed lunches on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday every month.

You may recall that in the past lunches had been provided by local restaurants with sides being provided by the host Church. Due to the current economy and shortage of labor, we will be moving ahead with a combination of lunches provided by a restaurant and lunches prepared in Saint Luke's Community Kitchen.

Saint Luke's/ EG Food Pantry will provide lunch on the 2nd Wednesday. Saint Luke's will prepare Sandwiches, sides, salads, desert etc. The EG food Pantry will assist in providing food to prepare.

Our Lady of Mercy (OLM)/ Wild Harvest will provide lunch on the 4th Wednesday. Wild Harvest will provide sandwiches and soup or a side. OLM will provide additional sides, salad, desert etc.

We are excited about resuming our outreach to our community and support to our neighbors.

Saint Luke's Here's how you can help:

Volunteers (3 or 4) from 9:30 to 12:30 needed to assist in preparation and serving of lunch on the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

Donations of deserts, baked goods, fruit by 10:00 am on the second Wednesday of the month.

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves and Fishes

Thank you for your contributions and participation to our November run. It was the first time in over two years that we were able to serve hot food; hot dogs and hamburgers were served from the heated bins of our truck.

Additionally, there was a generous response for blankets as approximately forty were donated.

For December, we will continue with the same menu as shown in the SignUp Genius. We are also asking for winter gloves and hats to help people in the winter which will soon be upon us. These items will be added to the gift bags that we distribute in Woonsocket. You will note that we are only asking for men's sizes as women are also able to use those sizes. Please note that we need to have the gloves and hats dropped off at St. Luke's by December 10th.

Click Here to sign up!

In signing up, there is no expectation that one person needs to fulfill the total amount. When using the SignUp Genius, please indicate the quantity you will be donating.

Your generosity is most appreciated and allows St Luke's to continue helping those in need. Thank you.

Food for Backpacks!

Our Food for Backpacks ministry is delivering to East Greenwich food insecure families. The appreciation and gratitude was deeply felt by both the receiving and the giving. For many of the families weekends are especially difficult as school breakfasts and lunches are not provided. Our first team of volunteers all expressed it was a moving experience, were grateful to participate, and are excited to continue the service. If you are already on the volunteer list, we will be contacting you as we developed a rotating schedule. If you're not on the list and would like to know more about it or would like to join with us, please contact:

Caroline Sparhawk : cdsparhawk@gmail.com

Joyce Harvey: joyce836@gmail.com

Undie Sundays!

As things start to improve around the state, the community we serve is in need of certain items, so we will be reinstating “UNDIE SUNDAYS”. On the first Sunday of every month we are calling on your generosity to provide us with new underwear and summer socks for men and women. You can leave these items in the church atrium where a basket will be provided in front of the office. Thank you!

As we pray for an end to violence and for those fleeing Ukraine, please also pray for Episcopal Relief & Development and other ecumenical agencies working to respond to the current crisis. Coffee Hour

Coffee Hour is Back!

We are pleased to announce that Coffee Hour is back! As Covid restrictions are being lifted somewhat, we feel it's the right time to bring back Coffee Hour.

We need your help! There is a quarterly sign-up sheet posted across from the office under our beautiful mosaic. Both services have spots to sign up to host a Sunday. We will continue to host in the atrium until our kitchen is ready. Our sexton makes the urn of coffee in the morning. The host provides juice, creamer for the coffee (although powdered coffee creamer is available in a pinch), and some baked goods of some sort. All supplies like cups, napkins, sugar, utensils are all located in the cupboard in the Blackburn Room. There are a few platters you can use to put goodies on. A table is set up in the atrium with a tablecloth on it. Afterwards, we ask that the coffee urn be washed out and set out to dry in the sink area of the Blackburn Room.

You can host with a friend, you can host with your kids, you can host solo - it's a wonderful way to be part of our St. Luke's hospitality – welcoming new faces and encouraging us all to reconnect in person after so many months of being apart. Jesus equated our love for each other and our neighbors with our love for Him. "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40)

Thank you for your help making St. Luke's a loving and welcoming space!

Grief Support Group

Grief is hard work!

It is even more difficult when we feel like we need to figure it out all on our own!

But ...

We Need Not Walk Alone!

St. Luke's has just started a Grief Support Group for Widows and Widowers.
If your spouse has died within the last few years, this group is for you!

Please join us in the Blackburn Room on the 3rd Saturday each month at 10 am and let's navigate through this challenging journey of grief together!

I work as a Bereavement Specialist for Southcoast VNA and a large portion of what I do is to facilitate Grief Support Groups.

I am so very grateful for the opportunity to facilitate a group with my St. Luke's family.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions!

St. Luke's Choirs

St. Luke's Choirs Sing for You!

As a special gift from the Canterbury, St. Cecilia, and Angel Choirs to our St. Luke's family and friends, choir members compiled a special 'arrangement' of "How Can I Keep From Singing". The music is from an American folk song originally composed by Baptist minister Robert Wadworth Lowry in 1868 with the four-part arrangement published by Jeffrey Honoré in 1991. The choirs performed this piece at their 2019 Spring Concert and happily recreated that performance in this video (also available on St. Luke's website and Facebook page).

Big Brothers and Big Sisters Donations

In our continuing efforts to be a good neighbor and serve our local community, we have added a new addition to the St Luke's parking lot! The clothing bin is a result of joining in a new partnership between the Episcopal Diocese and Big Brother Big Sister of Rhode Island. It will serve as a collection point for community donations of clothing, shoes and other cloth items. Please drop off your bagged items at your convenience.
