Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I learned last Friday that one of my two mentors had died. The Rev. Rodgers T. Wood was the first priest I worked with out of seminary. As you read this note I will be in Pittsburgh for his funeral.

Over the past several days I've been thinking about the many things Rodge (as he was called) taught me. He was the one to really cement in my heart and mind that the gospel was all about love. He was the one who encouraged me to preach wherever I felt most comfortable—even if that wasn't in the pulpit. And he was the one who introduced me to the notion of a "holy humility." I can still hear his deep voice saying, "Tim, we clergy must take our role seriously but never take ourselves too seriously!"

Holy humility, I believe, is quite different from "emotional humility," the latter being a sort of insecurity that plagues many of us, or a kind of false humility that we adopt when uncomfortable with compliments. I think the unfortunate effect of emotional humility is that it deflects. It deflects the significance of what we have done. ("Oh, it was no big deal," we might say.) It deflects the appreciation being expressed by another. (How many times have you heard yourself responding to someone's "thank you" with a self-deprecating comment rather than simply saying, "You're welcome"?) It deflects the capability and agency we might possess. ("Aw, anybody could have done it.")

And, perhaps most unfortunately, it deflects the power of the Holy Spirit working in us and through us. ("I'm really nothing special.")

But while an emotional humility deflects, a holy humility reflects. It reflects a thoughtful appreciation for the moment. It reflects an attentive recognition of the person (or persons) sharing in that moment. It reflects a healthy self-awareness of our gifts.

And most importantly, it reflects a faith-filled belief that we are special, created in God's image, and with this God "all things are possible."

Sure enough, for both psychological and spiritual health, it is essential we keep ourselves (and our egos) right-sized. Yet at the same time, I do believe God wants us to be secure in our gifts-- so we can be bold in the use of them. I do believe God wants us to consider what we do and how we do things-- so that we can consider how God might be calling us to be in the world.

And I do believe God wants us to be aware of our impact on the lives of others-- so we can be grateful for the relationships we have shared.

About a year ago I called Rodge to thank him for his many lessons. I told him he helped make me the priest I am today. And I told him how grateful I was that he had been a part of my life for nearly thirty years. I am not sure he was too comfortable with my sentimental musings. But I sure am glad I made the call!

One of my favorite lines in all of scripture comes from the prophet Micah, in describing what it is that God expects of us. Micah writes, “What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God” (Micah 6:8).

Challenging stuff, these three things—doing justice, loving kindness and walking humbly—and perhaps only truly possible if we remember the final words of this instruction, “...with your God.”

Peace,
Tim

Adult Faith Formation Book Study

Adult Faith Formation Book Study

"When Faith Becomes Sight: Opening Your Eyes to God's Presence All Around,"
by Beth & David Boorman.

From p.3 of the Introduction the Boorman's write:

"In short, rather than trying to fit God and life into a system of beliefs, this book suggests that we can find God by paying attention to our own lived experience, that we can, as St. Ignatius said, 'find God in all things.' Not that God CAUSES all things but we can discover God present and available to us in the midst of it all. To do so, what we need most are the eyes to see God."

Please join the Adult Faith Formation class in reading this book perfectly suited for Epiphany.

Adult Faith Formation class is held on Wednesdays at 7:00PM. Classes will be held by way of Zoom.

Our reading assignment is Chapters 7-8.

Job Opening

Job Opening - Part-time Coordinator for Youth and Family Programs

While it is Fr. Tim's policy not to hire parishioners, if you have any friends who may be interested, please let us know.

St. Luke's Church, an inclusive, thriving, multi-generational, and joy-filled church, located in the heart of East Greenwich, is looking for a part-time program coordinator (15-18 hours per week) to expand our ministries with youth and their families.

Essential hopes and expectations include oversight of our youth faith formation offerings (curriculum selection and preparation, teacher recruitment and support), enhanced activities of a fledgling youth group, weekly communication with parents regarding how they might further their children's faith formation at home, and the development of a one-week summer Vacation Bible School.

Additional responsibilities include regular collaboration with the ministry team, the creation of seasonal offerings, assisting the rector with confirmation classes (February through May), and planning for our every-other-year mission trip to the Dominican Republic.

Appropriate candidates must have a love for youth, and a comfort and familiarity with the Christian tradition. Experience working in a youth-related setting a must; a background in education is helpful but not required.

Other important qualities and attributes include:

- Creativity
- Good sense of humor
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Flexibility
- A demonstrated capacity to work well with others
- An energetic and energizing disposition

The weekly hours are flexible, although presence most Sunday mornings is required. With the exception of a Vacation Bible School, Faith Formation classes pause from June through August, allowing for 6 weeks of vacation time.

Women of Grace

Women of Grace

Dear Women of Grace,

Our next WofG meeting is Monday, February 6th, 7:00pm in the dining room at St. Luke's. This time of year as daylight begins to last longer, I begin thinking of warmer temperatures and an abundance of sunshine. It is also when I get excited for spring's arrival and the opportunity to get my hands into the dirt. This month WofG is fortunate to have Karen Asher, a past president of Rhode Island Wild Plant Society, speaking on native plants. What better way to beautify our environment by designing our gardens and focusing on preserving and protecting our native plants. I understand Karen is an awesome speaker and brings a wealth of knowledge.

All women are invited to join. Please RSVP if you are able to attend to deblukens73@gmail.com or text (908) 500-4573. Since we gather for a few minutes of fellowship before the presentation, you are welcome to bring a savory or sweet to share.

Grace and Peace,
Deb

Lunch on the Hill

Welcome Back – "Lunch On The Hill"

Matthew 25:35

I was hungry and you gave me food,

I was thirsty and you gave me drink,

I was a stranger and you welcomed me.....

Prior to shut down due to Covid, Saint Luke's "Lunch on the Hill" offered lunches every Wednesday to our surrounding community with a focus on the clients of the Food Pantry. "Lunch On The Hill" has resumed lunches on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday every month.

You may recall that in the past lunches had been provided by local restaurants with sides being provided by the host Church. Due to the current economy and shortage of labor, we will be moving ahead with a combination of lunches provided by a restaurant and lunches prepared in Saint Luke's Community Kitchen.

Saint Luke's/ EG Food Pantry will provide lunch on the 2nd Wednesday. Saint Luke's will prepare Sandwiches, sides, salads, desert etc. The EG food Pantry will assist in providing food to prepare.

Our Lady of Mercy (OLM)/ Wild Harvest will provide lunch on the 4th Wednesday. Wild Harvest will provide sandwiches and soup or a side. OLM will provide additional sides, salad, desert etc.

We are excited about resuming our outreach to our community and support to our neighbors.

Saint Luke's Here's how you can help:

Volunteers (3 or 4) from 9:30 to 12:30 needed to assist in preparation and serving of lunch on the 2nd Wednesday of the month.

Donations of deserts, baked goods, fruit by 10:00 am on the second Wednesday of the month.

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves and Fishes

December was a good month for the Loaves and Fishes Ministry. With your help and the help we receive from St Luke's, we distributed hot food and gift bags which included hats and gloves, heavy duty sweat shirts, a blanket, socks and toiletries. Many of the recipients immediately put on the sweat shirts.

For the January run we would ask that you check your closets for winter coats that you might donate. All sizes are needed for children, women and men. New items would be appreciated but any warm coat will be welcomed.

We will continue preparing 100 bags for Woonsocket and the Hotel in East Greenwich. The details are shown in the SignUp Genius.

Click Here to sign up!

We appreciate all the efforts that are put forth for Loaves and Fishes. As you think about where you could contribute to helping others, we would ask you to consider our ministry. All of your efforts are needed and appreciated such as the items on the SignUp Genius, the preparation at St. Luke's kitchen on the Saturday morning of our run and making the trip to Woonsocket. We do not expect participation in all these phases but many hands do make light work.

Thank you for your generosity and helping those in need.

Food for Backpacks!

Our Food for Backpacks ministry is delivering to East Greenwich food insecure families. The appreciation and gratitude was deeply felt by both the receiving and the giving. For many of the families weekends are especially difficult as school breakfasts and lunches are not provided. Our first team of volunteers all expressed it was a moving experience, were grateful to participate, and are excited to continue the service. If you are already on the volunteer list, we will be contacting you as we developed a rotating schedule. If you're not on the list and would like to know more about it or would like to join with us, please contact:

Caroline Sparhawk : cdsparhawk@gmail.com

Joyce Harvey: joyce836@gmail.com

Undie Sundays!

As things start to improve around the state, the community we serve is in need of certain items, so we will be reinstating "UNDIE SUNDAYS". On the first Sunday of every month we are calling on your generosity to provide us with new underwear and summer socks for men and women. You can leave these items in the church atrium where a basket will be provided in front of the office. Thank you!

Help Ukrainian Families

Help Ukrainian Families

As we pray for an end to violence and for those fleeing Ukraine, please also pray for Episcopal Relief & Development and other ecumenical agencies working to respond to the current crisis. Specific needs will change as the crisis evolves. As of right now, there is a need for cash, blankets and hygiene supplies. Let's support Episcopal Relief & Development as they help families fleeing the violence. Visit episcopalrelief.org for more information.

Dorcas Donations

Dorcas Donations

Dorcas has temporarily suspended their collection of donations.

Photos Wanted!

Photos Wanted!

Do you have photos of St Luke's church or at any events that we have hosted? As we work to increase our digital footprint, we would love the opportunity to share photos from our parishioners on our social media and communication channels. If you have photos that you'd like to share with us, please email them to Emma Peterson, our Social Media Specialist & Digital Evangelist, at Emma@StLukesEG.org.

Pastoral Care

Pastoral Care Ministry

Prayer is a powerful way for us to support each other and build community. If you would like to add someone to our parish prayer list, please use the online Prayer List Request Form. It is available on our website under our Parish Life tab and here in our Weekly Newsletter. The prayer list is updated weekly. The Pastoral Care Ministry continues to pray for all on the prayer list and send cards to the homebound and those in the hospital. By filling out the information on this form, you will help us to keep in touch. Click Here for our Prayer List Request Form.

Thank you and stay well.

Coffee Hour

Coffee Hour is Back!

We are pleased to announce that Coffee Hour is back! As Covid restrictions are being lifted somewhat, we feel it's the right time to bring back Coffee Hour.

We need your help! There is a quarterly sign-up sheet posted across from the office under our beautiful mosaic. Both services have spots to sign up to host a Sunday. We will continue to host in the atrium until our kitchen is ready. Our sexton makes the urn of coffee in the morning. The host provides juice, creamer for the coffee (although powdered coffee creamer is available in a pinch), and some baked goods of some sort. All supplies like cups, napkins, sugar, utensils are all located in the cupboard in the Blackburn Room. There are a few platters you can use to put goodies on. A table is set up in the atrium with a tablecloth on it. Afterwards, we ask that the coffee urn be washed out and set out to dry in the sink area of the Blackburn Room.

You can host with a friend, you can host with your kids, you can host solo - it's a wonderful way to be part of our St. Luke's hospitality – welcoming new faces and encouraging us all to reconnect in person after so many months of being apart. Jesus equated our love for each other and our neighbors with our love for Him. "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40)

Thank you for your help making St. Luke's a loving and welcoming space!

In His Service,

Tracy Sampson (10:15am service)

Grief Support Group

Grief is hard work!

It is even more difficult when we feel like we need to figure it out all on our own!

But ...

We Need Not Walk Alone!

St. Luke's has just started a Grief Support Group for Widows and Widowers.
If your spouse has died within the last few years, this group is for you!

Please join us in the Blackburn Room on the 3rd Saturday each month at 10 am and let's navigate through this challenging journey of grief together!

I work as a Bereavement Specialist for Southcoast VNA and a large portion of what I do is to facilitate Grief Support Groups.

I am so very grateful for the opportunity to facilitate a group with my St. Luke's family.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions!

Nancy Arnold - nancearnold@yahoo.com
(Our next meeting of the group will be Saturday, January 21, 2023 – 10 am)

St. Luke's Birthdays, Anniversaries, and Special Days of Thanksgiving

St. Luke's Birthdays, Anniversaries, & Special Days of Thanksgiving

Would you like to celebrate your birthday, anniversary, graduation or other special day with St. Luke's?

We are compiling a list of parishioners' birthdays, anniversaries, and other important dates. If you would like to have a thanksgiving offered during the weekly Prayers of the People, please complete this form. An appropriate thanksgiving will be included during the prayers.

Any questions? Please email Christina ( cimondi@stlukeseg.org) or call the parish office (401-884-4116). Happy Celebrating!

St. Luke's Choirs Sing for You!

As a special gift from the Canterbury, St. Cecilia, and Angel Choirs to our St. Luke's family and friends, choir members compiled a special 'arrangement' of "How Can I Keep From Singing". The music is from an American folk song originally composed by Baptist minister Robert Wadworth Lowry in 1868 with the four-part arrangement published by Jeffrey Honoré in 1991. The choirs performed this piece at their 2019 Spring Concert and happily recreated that performance in this video (also available on St. Luke's website and Facebook page).

Big Brothers and Big Sisters

Big Brothers and Big Sisters Donations

In our continuing efforts to be a good neighbor and serve our local community, we have added a new addition to the St Luke's parking lot! The clothing bin is a result of joining in a new partnership between the Episcopal Diocese and Big Brother Big Sister of Rhode Island. It will serve as a collection point for community donations of clothing, shoes and other cloth items. Please drop off your bagged items at your convenience.

Food Cupboard

Greetings from our Food Cupboard!

As we head into fall the shelves are getting bare as the need goes up. We've seen more than a 50% jump in client visits the last two months over the first seven months of the year.

Always on our list of needs are Luncheon Meat, Hash, Beef Stew, Chili, Hearty Soups, Canned Chicken, Canned Tuna.

Needed this month: Oatmeal, Ramen Noodles, Baked Beans, Sugar, Flour, Ground Coffee, Cereal, Canned Peaches, Pasta Roni side dishes, Chicken/Beef Stock, Chicken/Beef Gravy, Peanut Butter, Jam/Jelly, Vegetable Oil and Flour.

Thank you!
